

Header Text

Associated Students of Columbia College

Student Leadership

The Associated Students of Columbia College (ASCC) is the officially recognized student group that represents all students of Columbia College. The Student Government is a vital part of all Columbia College activities and programs. Elected representatives and student committees work to insure that the voice of the students are represented at the decision-making bodies of the college. We are proud to participate in student government at Columbia College and are equally delighted to share our enthusiasm with you. Please contact us at: 209.588.5270 or 209.588.5111

Purpose*

- Enhance sound student governance and citizenship
- Express the general will of the students to the administration
- Further cooperation with administration, staff, community and other educational institutions
- Create and maintain adequate scholastic, social, cultural, and political activities in the furtherance of student welfare

*Source: ASCC Constitution and Bylaws

Why get involved?

- Represent the interests of Columbia College students
- Participate in state level representation of California Community College through California Community College Student Affairs Association (CCCSAA)
- Work on committees with Columbia staff and administration through share governance
- Develop leadership skills
- Enhance job, scholarship and college transfer applications
- Plan campus activities
- Enrich your academic career