

Fall 2023 Columbia College Drop Summary

In Fall 2023 there were two important changes to the student registration process: 1) students were given an option when dropping a course of a reason why they were dropping the course and 2) students were dropped for non-payment if they did not pay their fees by August 22, 2023. All of this information is based on what was pulled on September 14, 2023. This information is expected to change throughout the Fall 2023 term.

Student Drops

Figure 1 illustrates the most recent status of the 3,018 students that registered for courses in the Fall 2023 term. There were 802 (26.6%) students in the “Partial Drop” category. It is important to note that the category “Partial Drop” may include students that dropped courses they were “shopping” for when developing their Fall schedule. Overall 11.4% of students that registered for Fall 2023 have dropped all of their courses.

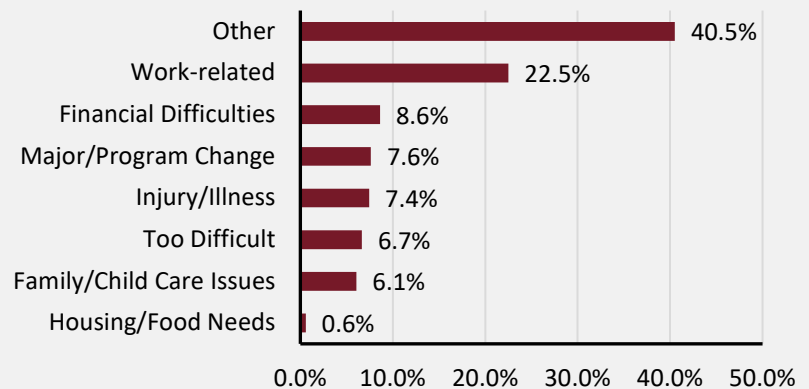

Figure 1. Fall 2023 Student Section Status Breakdown

Drop Reasons

There are 2,290 records of students dropping a course. Of those 415 (18.1%) had administrative reasons (Drop for Non-Payment, Move Drop ect.), 511 (22.3%) included a student’s response to why they dropped the course, and 1,364 (59.6%) did not list a drop reason. Figure 2 illustrates the percentage breakdown of the 511 students that indicated why they dropped a course. Other was the highest category at 40.5% and Work-related was the second highest at 22.5%.

Figure 2. Fall 2023 Reasons Why Students Dropped Courses

Fall 2023 Drop for Non-Payment

Students affected:	Students that did not re-add all courses:	Student section records affected:	Student section records not added after drop:
146	62 (42.5%)	301	155 (51.5%)