

September 17, 1973

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Welcome to Columbia Junior College. We hope that you all had a relaxing summer and are ready to accept the challenges offered to you this coming school year.

The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Admissions and Records Office, the Rotunda, the Library, the Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notices of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Mrs. Arlene Wallace in the office of the Dean of Student Services by 1:00 p.m. Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

PARKING:

Parking for students is available in Lots B, C, and D. Please note that Parking Lot A is reserved for faculty and staff parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations as outlined in the Student Handbook.

STUDENT HANDBOOKS:

Student Handbooks will be available free of charge in the Admissions and Records Office, the Bookstore and the Library.

BUS SERVICE:

Columbia Junior College buses will be transporting students from the Jamestown area, Pinecrest, San Andreas and Arnold. Schedules are printed in the Student Handbook and are also available in the Admissions and Records Office. No charge for C.J.C. students.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS:

Student Identification Cards will be required for checking out library books, audio-visual equipment and materials. To obtain your identification card, report to the Rotunda in the Learning Resources Center to have your picture taken and fill out the information required. It will be necessary to furnish your driver's license or some other proof of your birthdate. I.D. cards will be available daily from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. September 17-21 and 24-28. There is no charge for this service.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the Columbia Junior College campus with the exception of those animals that are contained within vehicles in the parking lot and "Seeing Eye" dogs.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Students who were awarded scholarships at Columbia Junior College graduation in June should see Mrs. Painter the first week of school.

Students who have received scholarships elsewhere and are transferring to Columbia should also see Mrs. Painter.

MANZANITA BOOKSTORE:

The Manzanita Bookstore is located next to the Cafeteria in the Learning Resources Center and will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily. Evening hours are 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays the first two weeks of the new quarter only.

A full refund will be given on returned books only when accompanied by the class drop card and only from September 17 through October 5, 1973.

Book buy will be the week of finals in December.

All are welcome to attend these two lectures.

MONEY:

Youth grants in the Humanities offer young people an opportunity to explore their own interest in the Humanities and to enlarge their educational and social experience. The individual--whether he analyzes a treatise or applies historical and philosophical knowledge to serious contemporary issues--can develop initiatives useful to him all his life and come to comprehend the many ways in which the Humanities can broaden his understanding and assist in the enjoyment of the world. The amount varies from about $2,000 for an individual effort to about $10,000 for a group effort. See Dick Dyer for additional details.

FINANCIAL AID:

If you are a first time, full-time student and in need of financial assistance, you may be eligible for a Basic Educational Opportunity Grant. Information and applications are available in the Financial Aid Office.

NURSING SCHOLARSHIP WINNER:

Pamela Ortet, an L.V.N. trainee, was named winner of the Beth Stark Memorial Scholarship provided by the Twain Harte American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Winifred Hunt, representing this organization visited the LVN class recently to make the award. Congratulations, Pam Ortet!

MONEY:

Youth grants in the Humanities offer young people an opportunity to explore their own interest in the Humanities and to enlarge their educational and social experience. The individual--whether he analyzes a treatise or applies historical and philosophical knowledge to serious contemporary issues--can develop initiatives useful to him all his life and come to comprehend the many ways in which the Humanities can broaden his understanding and assist in the enjoyment of the world. The amount varies from about $2,000 for an individual effort to about $10,000 for a group effort. See Dick Dyer for additional details.

CALIFORNIA STATE SCHOLARSHIPS:

Applications for state scholarships for the academic year 1974-75 are available in Mrs. Painter's office. These applications are to be returned to the State Scholarship and Loan Commission no later than November 20, 1973. One of the qualifications is that the student have taken the SAT test. Mrs. Painter also has applications for the SAT test for those students needing to take it.

ADVISEMENT FOR WINTER QUARTER 1974:

Advisement for Winter Quarter 1974 continues. If you have not already done so, please see your advisor and obtain approval for your Winter program and pick up your Permit to Register from the Admissions and Records Office immediately.

COLLEGE NURSE:

Mrs. Ruth Hagstrom, College Nurse, will not be on campus Monday, November 19, and Tuesday, November 20. Dr. Borgquist will not be on campus Wednesday, November 21.

CREDIT-NO CREDIT:

Next week, November 26-30, students may pick up petitions for Credit-No Credit in the Admissions and Records Office. Only one credit-no credit permitted per quarter, and not in your major. See page 31 in the College catalog.

NEW STATE SCHOLARSHIPS FOR OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION:

Students who are interested in training in areas of manpower need as defined by the State Scholarship Commission are invited to consider the new competitive grants recently announced. Mrs. Painter has the applications and can offer information regarding student eligibility which is based on student's overall aptitude, desire and potential in his specified vocational area plus financial need. Don't overlook this opportunity. Deadline is January 27, 1974.

PRE-REGISTRATION CONTINUES:

We hope all continuing students have completed their pre-registration. Permits to register are granted after program scheduling with advisor approval. Registration for Winter Quarter is scheduled for December 7, 1973.

On November 19 advisement appointments for incoming students will begin.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS:

There will be visitors on campus during this week and we know you will want to assist them in finding their way around and in giving them a true Columbia welcome.

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD MEETING:

Student Advisory Board Meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 21, at 12:00 noon in Room 611. Ski Team members should be present. EVERYONE WELCOME.

VETERANS:

Have you received your check yet? Are you having trouble with classes, do you need counseling? If the answer to any of the above is "yes," come to the veterans affairs office; we can help you. Also, if you have any feelings or energy concerning the recent Vets Newsletter, come and let me know so we can get some positive movement going. The Vets office is now trying to set up a job reference file; come in and list your military and civilian training specialties so we can match people with jobs. Come in and make yourself heard.

The Manzanita Bookstore will be open during the first two weeks of the quarter as follows:

7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily  6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Mon. through Thurs.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS:

Student Identification cards will be required for checking out library books, audio-visual equipment and materials. If you have not obtained your identification card, please go to the A-V area in the Library to have your picture taken and fill out the information for your card. It will be necessary to have with you your driver's license or some other proof of your birthdate. Those who have I.D. cards for Fall Quarter 1973 may have them validated for Winter Quarter 1974 in the A-V area at any time.

Evening students may also obtain their identification cards in the A-V area until 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

There is no charge for new cards or validation.

VETERANS:

Veterans attending Columbia Junior College for the first time in Winter Quarter 1974 or those returning after an absence must contact the veterans office on campus for enrollment to be certified with the Veterans Administration.

HUNTER SAFETY COURSE:

A Hunter Safety course for first time hunters between the ages of 12 and 17 years is being jointly planned by Department of Fish and Game instructors and Columbia Junior College Community Services. The course is tentatively scheduled for early January and will be conducted on the CJC campus two evenings per week for two weeks. Anyone wishing to register for the course should leave his or her name in the Admissions and Records Office. The class will be scheduled when the minimum enrollment has been reached.

INTRAMURALS:

Come on out to the Intramural program here at CJC. We have something for everybody - basketball, horseshoes, jogging, soccer, tennis and volleyball for outdoor people. For those who prefer to be indoors, checkers and chess are available for the intellectuals and darts, gymnastics, karate, ping pong, trampoline and weight training for the athletes.

So come one, come all to the intramural program. Add it to your Winter Schedule on Mondays and Wednesdays from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. Hope to see you there!

A TIME TO VISIT OTHER SCHOOLS:

April 20 is "University Day" at the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California. Many special events are scheduled including faculty lectures, mini-courses on the energy crisis, barbecue luncheon, campus tour, Market Day and sports. Residence halls, classroom buildings other facilities will be open for inspection.

April 26 and 27 is Poly Royal '74 at the California Polytechnic State University at San Luis Obispo. It is a good time to see and enjoy this unique opportunity in career education in action. The theme for the student-planned, student implemented open house observance will be "42 years and better with age -- just for you." Action and graphic displays illustrating the many facets of instructional offerings, rodeos, aquacade, band concerts, dramatic presentations, gymnastics competition, special exhibits and so on are being planned. All this is presented without an admission charge!!

April 27 is an important date in the history of the School of Education at the University of the Pacific in Stockton. The 50th anniversary is a significant date and provides a time to observe the achievements of their past and to chart directions for the future. This is "Pacific Day" on the campus and an excellent opportunity to view and become better acquainted with all the schools and colleges in an all-campus open house.

Students at Columbia Junior College who plan to transfer to any of these schools or others are invited to stop by to see Mrs. Painter for further details for visitation or discuss any concerns regarding a change of College.

GOING TO GRADUATE???

Lists of Tentative Graduates are posted on various bulletin boards. Please check to see if your name is included. If not----have you submitted an "Intent to Graduate" form? See Mrs. Appling in the Admissions and Records Office.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS:

Students who will be continuing at Columbia next year are encouraged to complete applications for scholarships. The application form is available in the Admissions and Records Office or from Mrs. Painter.

CERTIFICATES:

Will you be eligible for a certificate at the end of this quarter? Your instructors have the forms or you may pick them up in the Admissions and Records Office.

DOGS ON CAMPUS:

An increase in the number of dogs on campus has become apparent. As everyone knows, this is in violation of College policy. For many obvious reasons dogs, with the exception of seeing-eye dogs, cannot be permitted on the campus under any circumstances.

Some students seem to feel that there is an exception to the rule in the vicinity of the P. E. buildings. This is not correct and dogs are not permitted in the P.E. area at any time.

In the future dogs on campus will be picked up by the pound. Your cooperation in this matter will be most appreciated.

BOOKSTORE:

No charges will be accepted at the Manzanita Bookstore after May 15, 1974; due to the closing of yearly accounts (audit).

INTERESTED IN A CLASS RING FROM C.J.C.???

Come in and see samples. Ring Day will be May 31, 1974, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This will be the only day for ring orders. A representative from the company will be at the Bookstore at this time to answer all questions and take orders.

IF WE HAVE A DANCE---WOULD ANYONE COME??

If you would like to assist in having a dance, come to the Advisory Board Meeting on May 16, Thursday, at 2:00 p.m. in Room 621.

GOVERNATORIAL CANDIDATE:

Edmund G. Brown, Jr., as well as television and press representatives, will be on campus on Friday, May 17, at 12:00 noon. A question and answer period will follow a short speech on the point by the monument. Come and be on T.V.

FINANCIAL AID:

Financial Aid applications for academic year 1974-75 are available in the Financial Aid Office and should be completed and submitted for processing as soon as possible.

TIRED OF DOING SOMEONE ELSE'S TRIP??

Do your own!! Clint Paxton from Paxton's Book Store and Jim Riggs, hair dresser, movie maker, realtor and boutique store owner, will share their experiences in starting a small business on Thursday, May 16, at 12:00 noon in Room 500. Tuolumne County is growing fast --- Get Your Share!

IMPORTANT CHANGE FOR VETERANS:

In the past a veteran could not be paid for the interval between a spring and summer session unless the summer session was approximately the same length as the other sessions and designated by the school as a third semester or a fourth quarter. This has been changed. A veteran may now be paid for the interval between the spring and summer sessions provided the interval does not span a full calendar month and the veteran is continuously enrolled in the same school. Please contact Mrs. Connitt for further information.

GENERAL EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT TESTING SCHEDULE:

The GED (high school equivalency) test will be given in Room 104 of the Learning Skills Center on Monday, May 20, and Tuesday, May 21, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Students interested in taking the GED test should see Mrs. Painter for further information.

SYMPOSIUM ON HANDICAPPED:

A symposium on career placement problems of the handicapped will be conducted on Friday, May 24, in Room 500 of the Health Occupations Building. Personnel from local agencies and schools who would like to share their experience with problems of the handicapped have been invited to participate. The workshop is scheduled from 9:00 a.m. to noon and from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Interested students are invited to attend.

RESULTS OF STUDENT ART SHOW:

Robin Keefe of Columbia earned the Best of Show award at the juried all-student art show. Miss Keefe used lost wax casting to create her winning entry entitled "Castle Rock." The entry also won a first place ribbon in the sculpture division. The entries and the ribbons presented are on display in the rotunda and the showing will continue through May 31.

SPACE SCIENCE LECTURE

"Blackholes and other Megathoughts" will be the topic of a lecture on Tuesday, May 14, at noon in Room 103. Bob McDonald, earth and space science instructor, will describe blackholes and explain the "astronomical" evidence for the existence of blackholes. All interested persons are invited to attend.

GOING TO GRADUATE???

Lists of Tentative Graduates are posted on various bulletin boards. Any questions?? See Mrs. Appling in the Admissions and Records Office.

CERTIFICATES:

Are you completing the requirements for a certificate? Submit the form to your instructor or the Admissions and Records Office.

CANDIDATE ON CAMPUS:

John Garamendi, Democratic Assembly Candidate from the 7th District, will be on campus on Monday, May 20, today, from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. and will meet with students on the point by the monument.

ALTERNATIVE LIFE STYLES:

The economics, problems and pleasures of Alternative Life Styles will be examined in film and discussion on Thursday, May 23, at 12:00 noon in Room 500. All interested persons are invited to participate.

IMPORTANT CHANGE FOR VETERANS:

In the past a veteran could not be paid for the interval between a spring and summer session unless the summer session was approximately the same length as the other sessions and designated by the school as a third semester or a fourth quarter. This has been changed. A veteran may now be paid for the interval between the spring and summer sessions provided the interval does not span a full calendar month and the veteran is continuously enrolled in the same school. Please contact Mrs. Connitt for further information.

FINANCIAL AID:

Financial Aid applications for academic year 1974-75 are available in the Financial Aids Office and should be completed and submitted for processing as soon as possible.

COMMUNITY SERVICES: Los Flamencos de la Bodega

The dance and musical expression of the Spanish gypsies will be recreated at Columbia Junior College by Los Flamencos de la Bodega. The dance group will give a performance on Wednesday, May 22, at 8:00 p.m. in the Forum, Room 600. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

COMMUNITY SERVICES: Pioneers of Modern Painting Series

The final film in the series will reflect the life and work of Edouard Manet and will be shown on Wednesday, May 22, at 8:00 p.m. in the dining room at Sonora Memorial Hall and again on Thursday, May 23, at 3:00 p.m. in the Forum on campus. The film explores Manet's relationship with Claude Monet and the other impressionists. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.
