

COLUMBIA JUNIOR COLLEGE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

September 15, 1975

WELCOME:

Welcome to Columbia Junior College!! We hope that you all had a relaxing summer and are ready to accept the challenges offered to you this coming school year. The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Admissions and Records Office, the Rotunda, the Library, the Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notices of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Mrs. Dorothy Raulston in the office of the Dean of Student Services by 1:00 p.m. Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

PARKING:

Parking for students is available in Lots B, C and D. Please note that Parking Lot A is reserved for faculty and staff parking. All posted signs and traffic regulations as outlined in the Student Handbook must be followed. Violators are subject to having their cars towed away at the owner's expense.

STUDENT HANDBOOKS:

If you have not received a Student Handbook, you may obtain one free of charge in the Admissions and Records Office, the Bookstore and the Library.

BUS SERVICE:

Columbia Junior College buses will be transporting students from the Jamestown area, Pinecrest and Arnold. Schedules are printed in the Student Handbook and are also available in the Admissions and Records Office. No charge for CJC students.

CAMPUS CLEANLINESS:

The students in the past have always taken great pride in maintaining the beauty of our campus. It is hoped that this pride in the campus will continue and all students and staff assume the responsibility of keeping it litter free.

CALIFORNIA STATE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS:

Students who are interested in considering this financial help should see Barbara Painter or any staff member in the Student Services area so that you may have the applications completed by the December 6, 1975, deadline.

SAT TESTS:

Late registration to take the SAT test is still possible. These tests are necessary for your application for the state scholarships. If you have taken the test previously, that score may be used. Applications are available from Barbara Painter.

DO YOU SPEAK ANOTHER LANGUAGE?

There have been several requests from community people for assistance for people who now speak Portuguese, Spanish, Vietnamese and other languages. If you are bilingual, please get in touch with Barbara Painter. Your assistance on a volunteer basis (in some instances you will be paid) will be greatly appreciated. The purpose of this is to help these people with English as a new language. We do have some aids that may be used.

APPLICATIONS FOR TRANSFER:

Applications for transfer to the University of California or all State Universities will be available in the Student Services area in the near future. For those of you who are considering transfer by Fall 1976, the application filing period is the month of November. Further information will be available soon. This is the Number One alert.

AUTOMOBILE COURTESY SERVICE:

If your car won't start, if you have a flat tire, or if you have any other minor mechanical problems with your car while at the College, you may contact the Parking Attendant, David Falicki, for assistance. He will help in whatever way possible. If you cannot find David in the parking lot area, please contact Dorothy Raulston in the office of the Dean of Student Services, or call extension 219 or 233.

WORK EXPERIENCE OR JOB PLACEMENT FOR EVENING STUDENTS:

If you are seeking work experience or job placement information, this is to remind you that the Job Placement Office (Room 622-C) will be open every Tuesday evening until 9:00 p.m. Mr. Heinsius will be available for anyone seeking information regarding the above.

STUDENTS SEEKING PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT:

Please check the bulletin board at the Job Placement Office entrance (Room 622-C) for available job openings. This is important since many of the students who registered with the Job Placement Office do not have telephones. For further information, stop by the Job Placement Office from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

NOTICE:

Employed students are reminded that they are still able to sign up for Work Experience. Please check with Mr. Heinsius in Room 622-C.

ADVISORY BOARD:

The Advisory Board now has two members - James Mosher and Tommy Thompson. One of the issues we will be taking up soon is the growing litter problem on campus, especially cigarette butts. Anyone who would like to offer advice, come to the Student Activities Office and leave your name and schedule. The President's Advisory Committee now has one member - Robin Thielke.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS:

Flamenco and electric guitar, flute and oboe will be the instruments studied by four CJC students who are recipients of the fall quarter music scholarship. The scholarships are provided by the Columbia Junior College Foundation for private instruction to further the student's performing ability. The recipients are Kit DeMoe (flamenco guitar); Dave Kell (electric guitar); Meredith Ann Link (flute); and Margaret Mizrahi (oboe). Congratulations to all of you!!

HIPPIES, RADICALS AND SQUARES:

COLUMBIA JUNIOR COLLEGE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

October 20, 1975

VISITATION ON CAMPUS:

In the morning of October 20, 1975, students from the second and third grades at Jamestown Elementary School will visit the campus to follow the Nature Trail, visit biology labs and eat lunch by the lake. We can expect about 120 students with teachers and teacher aides. If there are areas where these students cannot be accommodated by the visit, please notify Barbara Painter.

AIR FORCE REPRESENTATIVES ON CAMPUS:

Representatives from the Department of the Air Force will be on campus October 23, 1975, to discuss offerings and opportunities in this branch of the service. You may meet them in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center.

APPLICATIONS FOR TRANSFER:

We now have applications for the 1976-77 school year at any of the nineteen campuses of the California State College and Universities or the nine campuses of the University of California. Counselors will be happy to assist students to review course work still needed to meet general education breadth requirements. Advisors also are available for assistance concerning lower division required courses for particular majors. The applications are in Mrs. Painter's office and the month of November is the initial filing period for fall 1976. Emphasis are placed on early application, November 1 through 30, for full consideration.

STATE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS:

California State Scholarship applications are still available in Barbara Painter's office. The scholarships are to cover tuition and fees for low or middle income students with academic ability. SAT scores are necessary and the next SAT test administration is December 6, 1975, with October 31 being the last day to file for the SAT test. All scholarship applications are to be postmarked December 6, 1975.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP:

Tuolumne County Historical Society has established a $150 award for a research paper on the history of Tuolumne County. This memorial grant is available to any full-time student enrolled here who has completed 40 quarter hours of work. Please see Richard Dyer or Barbara Painter for further details. We certainly encourage local historians to be stimulated to do this kind of research.

PING PONG TOURNAMENT:

ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING WORKSHOP:

A second Assertiveness Training Workshop, sponsored by the Mother Lode Chapter of NOW, has been scheduled for Saturday, November 15, 1975, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Sonora High School. The cost of the workshop is $10, but there are scholarships available. To sign up, mail your $10 to Ellen Foxcroft, 313 South Stewart Street, Sonora. For more information, or to request a scholarship, call Ellen at 532-1129 or contact Linda Thorpe in the I.M.C. area. Space is limited, so sign up soon if you are interested.

ATTENTION PRESENT AND FORMER ASTRONOMY STUDENTS:

There will be a field trip Tuesday, October 21, 1975, to San Joaquin Delta College Planetarium in Stockton (new campus). The trip will involve a study of two topics - Coordinate Systems and Sidereal Time. The bus will leave at 8:45 a.m. and return at 2:00 p.m. A sign-up sheet is available in the Natural Resources Building.

ATTENTION SMOKERS:

The problem of discarded cigarette butts on our campus is becoming very serious and more unsightly. We ask your cooperation in disposing of your cigarette butts in an appropriate receptacle. If you have any suggestions as to where a receptacle is needed or where none exists presently, please contact Dorothy Raulston in the office of the Dean of Student Services. Let's give our custodians a break as well as keeping our beautiful campus neat and clean. Your consideration will be appreciated; thank you.

WOMEN'S DISCUSSION HOUR:

Students have requested a time when they can just rap with each other in the Women's Center. Tuesday, October 21, from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. has been set aside to discuss Alice Doesn't Day (October 29, 1975) and other items of interest.

ILLUSTRATOR NEEDED:

An illustrator is still needed to assist one of our students, Jan White, with poster announcing the various activities of women on campus. If you have this talent and would like to assist, please see Jean Peterson in the Student Services area or in the Women's Center.

BOOK EXHIBIT IN WOMENS CENTER:

INCOME TAX LAWS:

Income tax law changes affecting small businessmen will be discussed at a second businessmen's workshop on Monday, October 27, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Sonora Memorial Hall. The workshop will deal with income tax law changes and how they affect business profitability. Speakers will be Frank Lowry and Phil Deckard, certified public accountants with Nattinger-Lowry accounting firm in Sonora.

ART EXHIBIT:

A showing of surrealist oil paintings and linoleum prints by R. C. Lovelace of Atascadero opened this week at Columbia Junior College. Lovelace's works will remain on exhibit in the Rotunda through November 14, 1975.

THANK YOU:

Much appreciation is extended to those considerate smokers who responded to our request last week by disposing of their cigarette butts properly. People have also been seen picking up litter while walking to classes. It is this spirit of concern which will keep our campus from becoming a "little Bay Area." Thank you for your continued cooperation

ADVISEMENT FOR WINTER QUARTER 1976:

Advisement for Winter Quarter 1976 continues. If you have not already done so, please see your advisor and obtain approval for your winter program and pick up your Permit to Register from the Admissions and Records Office immediately. Registration for all day students will be held Friday, December 19, 1975, in the Cafeteria.

TUOLUMNE TOMORROW:

"Tuolumne Tomorrow," a Community Service production to promote awareness of the condition of Tuolumne County now and in the future, will be presented in Room 620 at 12:00 p.m. Tuesday, November 25, 1975. The program consists of two 15-minute shows with a discussion period in the middle for those interested in commenting or questioning. The slides dissolve one into another to a creative mix of music and narrative. A truly esthetic experience written by Tina Deatsch, music adapted by John Cellucci (the song, "Dream for Tuolumne," was written and arranged by John Cellucci and features Dave Joens as the vocalist) with photography by Terril Deatsch and John L. Prentiss.

ROTUNDA EXHIBIT:

Exhibited in the Rotunda are nude studies and historical buildings painted and drawn by Kathe Waterbury of Sonora, a former Columbia Junior College student, and ceramic works by Bill Mansperger, an instructional aide in the Art Department. The items will remain on display through December 12, 1975.

CAMPUS NURSE:

The College Nurse will not be on campus Monday through Wednesday, November 24 -27.

HUNGRY?:

There will be a bake sale Tuesday, November 25, beginning at 9:00 a.m. in front of the Cafeteria. All proceeds will go to the ski team.

MARK TWAIN:

WINTER QUARTER ADVISEMENT:

Advisement continues for Winter Quarter 1976 Registration. Continuing students who plan to take classes in the winter quarter and have not obtained their Permit to Register should contact their advisors immediately in order to obtain approval for registration.

TIRE CHAINS--HOW TO PUT ON:

Remember the noon workshop on how to put on tire chains on medium and compact size cars. It will be conducted by Mac Frost and David Willson Wednesday and Thursday noon, December 10 and 11, in the Heavy Equipment Building. Be prepared with the know-how when those snowy days arrive.

C.J.C. DRAMA PRODUCTION:

Marat-Sade, written by Peter Weiss, will open on Thursday, December 4, at 8 p.m. in the Forum. This play within-a-play, performed in an asylum, re-enacts the assassination of a revolutionary. The production makes use of music, song, and dance to tell its story. Marat-Sade will also be presented on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 5, 6, 12, and 13. Admission is free.

SELF DEFENSE

No, the class does not appear in the Winter Quarter Schedule. Yes, the class does exist and will be offered Monday, 7-9 p.m. at Bret Harte High School in Angels Camp, and Wednesday, 7-9 p.m. at Sonora High School in the Wrestling Room. The course is designed especially for women. Self Defense doesn't involve brutal force but rather knowing what to do, knowing how to use your body, and knowing where a person is vulnerable. A goal of the course is to develop self-confidence and self-reliance mentally and physically.

STATE PARK TECHNICIAN:

Ranger Lyle Keith of the California State Park Service will be at the Career Center on Tuesday, December 2, 8-2 p.m., with information concerning the upcoming State Park Technician Exam. This should be of special interest to students approaching graduation since recent changes in application requirements have made entry into this position possible for students holding an A.A. Degree.

Applications must be filed by December 6, forms will be available from Ranger Keith. Students interested in other programs and career opportunities in the State Park Service are invited to drop by the Career Center located in the Student Lounge.

REAL ESTATE SCHOLARSHIPS:

Instant action is needed for students who may be interested in a new Community College Real Estate Advancement Endowment Fund. Deadline is December 8 and the person to see for the application is Mrs. Painter.

LOOKING FOR WHERE YOU FIT IN?

The Student Advisory Board (which is you!) meets this Tuesday, December 2, at noon in Room 622 to discuss a Talent Show-Craft Faire and other possible "sources of income" (i.e. lounge pool table) for next quarter. Come voice your 2¢ worth. It's your government!

ADVISEMENT:

Permits to Register for the Winter Quarter are still available. Students currently enrolled may obtain a Permit to Register by filling out a Registration Program Card and having it approved by their advisor. This week there will be new students on campus for initial advisement. It is hoped that continuing students will offer any assistance they may need and see that they receive the traditional Columbia welcome.

ATTENTION:

All students in Political Science 101, Constitutional Government (Independent Study): The final exam will be given on Thursday, December 11, at 8:00 a.m. and at 6:00 p.m. in Room 620. You may take your choice of the two hours, or make a special appointment with Bob Hamilton for an individual time for the exam. Any students scheduled to take this exam who do not do so will automatically be given a grade of "N" for this course ("N" = "no grade"...see the CJC catalog).

OFFER OF A SCHOLARSHIP:

Mrs. Painter's office has information regarding the $500 Barry Fong-Torres Scholarship for a student beginning or continuing graduate study in the field of corrections, with emphasis on juvenile delinquency prevention. The deadline for the return of applications is April 1, 1976.

VISITORS FROM STANISLAUS STATE:

Representatives Ed Aubert, Dean of Admissions, Cary Peyton, Director of Financial Aid, and Mike Leaveck, Veterans Counselor -- all from Stanislaus State -- will be available to talk to interested students on Tuesday, December 9, starting at 10:30 a.m. in the Rotunda. While they will be here particularly to assist students transferring to Stanislaus, they are willing to answer questions regarding transfer to other state college campuses. If you would like a special appointment with them, please stop by Mrs. Painter's office beforehand.

ATTENTION MEN VOLLEYBALL PLAYERS:

Tuesday, December 9, at 12:00 p.m. in front of the Intramural Sport Shed, there will be a meeting to sign up and begin a men's volleyball team to compete against other colleges and city league teams.

INTERESTED IN HOCKEY?:

Anyone interested in playing ice hockey Sunday or Monday nights from 6:30 to 7:30 next quarter should see Karen Kessel in the P.E. Center.

FORUM:

A forum on the County administrative facility will be held Monday, December 15, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 60C. The gathering is billed as an informational meeting to provide unbiased information and dispel some of the misconceptions about the proposal for a new County administrative complex so the citizens can make up their own minds where they stand on the issue. Local technical persons and other professionals will make up a panel providing relevant information. A question and answer period will be included. The town meeting type gathering is sponsored by the Community Services Program.

(OVER, PLEASE)

CHRISTMAS CHORUS CONCERT:

"The Story of Christmas" will be presented by 40 singers and musicians on Sunday, December 14, at the Columbia Church of the 49'ers. Participating in the 7:30 p.m. program will be the Tuolumne County Community Chorus, the Sierra Singers and the Sierra Brass Choir, all groups conducted through Columbia Junior College. Admission is free, but donations will be accepted to benefit the College Music Scholarship Fund.

STUDENT ART SALE:

A student art sale will be held in the Rotunda from December 15 through 19. Students with art and craft items they would like to offer for sale may contact Joel Barber in the Art Department for details.

HOW TO PUT ON CHAINS:

If it came down to the nitty-gritty and you had to put chains on your car, could you do it? Installation of tire chains on standard and compact cars will be demonstrated during a noon workshop Wednesday and Thursday, December 10 and 11, at Columbia Junior College. The demonstration will be put on by McKinley Frost and David Willson in the Heavy Equipment Building on campus. College men and women and members of the community are invited to participate. Tips will be given on how to put the chains on quickly and safely and if time allows, each participant will have an opportunity to try the technique.

The gathering is billed as an informational meeting to provide unbiased information and dispel some of the misconceptions about the proposal for a new County administrative complex so the citizens can make up their own minds where they stand on the issue. Local technical persons and other professionals will make up a panel providing relevant information. A question and answer period will be included. The town meeting type gathering is sponsored by the Community Services Program.

CERTIFICATES:

Students who are fulfilling certificate requirements this quarter should file for the certificate in the Student Records Office. If you plan to complete the requirements Winter Quarter, you may apply now or at the beginning of next quarter.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Students wishing to enroll in Work Experience for the Winter Quarter 1976 should contact the Work Experience Office prior to registration. This is necessary for both new and continuing students. The office is located in Room 622-C. Hours are daily 8:00A.M. to 4:30P.M. - Additional evening hours have been added: December 16 and 17 from 5:00P.M. to 9:00P.M.

LVN GRADUATION:

Twenty-seven graduates of Columbia Junior College's licensed vocational nurses program will receive their caps and pins during a commencement ceremony on Wednesday, December 17, 7:30P.M., in the Forum-Room 600.

CHRISTMAS GIFT BOOKS:

Christmas gift books will be on sale the week of December 15 in the Manzanita Bookstore. There will be children's books and other gift books available. Come in and browse around.

BOOK BUY:

The Manzanita Bookstore will hold its end-of-the-quarter used book buy on the following days at the scheduled hours:

Monday	December 15	12:00N.	to 4:00P.M.
Tuesday	December 16	8:00A.M.	to 4:00P.M.

Thursday	December 18	8:00A.M.	to 3:00P.M.	6:30P.M. to 8:30P.M.

MESSAGE FROM YOUR STUDENT BODY REPRESENTATIVE:

On Friday, December 19, during registration as you proceed to juggle class times into a workable schedule for Winter Quarter, remember that attendance figures will be more closely scrutinized and courses may be cancelled if there is not enough enrollment. If you have any comments, suggestions, gripes, or questions, I'll be available in the cafeteria at that time to hear your viewpoint. Look for my nametag. You can also drop off written correspondence into the manila envelope posted on the Rotunda Bulletin Board. I need your feedback to help me make decisions affecting you. Please help me to help you.....ROBIN SPRINGFIELD.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT FORM:

All students, both day and evening, are asked to cooperate in filling out employment survey forms which are to be distributed at registration and during the first week of the Winter Quarter. Completed forms may be returned during registration or to the Career Services Office (Room 622-C), the Career Center in the Student Lounge, or dropped in return boxes which will be located around the campus. Forms must be returned no later than January 30, 1976. We ask you to take a few minutes to respond to this request. The information gathered will be of value in providing more effective student services.

COLUMBIA JUNIOR COLLEGE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

January 5, 1976

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Student Services Office, the Lobby, the Library, the Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notice of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Mrs. Dorothy Raulston in the office of the Dean of Student Services by 1:00 p.m. Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Student Schedules are available on the table outside of the Admissions and Records Office.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS:

Auditions for the music scholarships will be held this Friday, January 9, 1976, beginning at 4:00 p.m. in the Forum. Application forms are available in the Dean of Student Services Office and must be returned to that office by 4:30 p.m. Thursday, January 8, 1976.

PARKING:

Please note that Parking Lot A is now available for student parking as well as Lots B, C, and D. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

BUS SERVICE:

Columbia Junior College buses will be transporting students from the Jamestown area, Pinecrest and Arnold. Schedules are printed in the Student Handbook and are also available in the Admissions and Records Office. Additional bus service was added in the fall quarter from Twain Harte. The bus leaves Twain Harte Save Mart at 8:20 a.m. and arrives on campus at 9:00 a.m. At 2:05 each day a bus will leave the College for Twain Harte with stops in Sonora and along Highway 108. There is no charge for officially enrolled Columbia Junior College students to ride the buses.

EVENING BUS SERVICE:

There is also evening bus service for students. The schedule is as follows:

Hales and Symons parking lot on South Washington.....	6:30 p.m.
Red Church parking lot on Snell Street.....	6:40 p.m.
Sonora High School parking lot (near swimming pool).....	6:45 p.m.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there is no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages we can take for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the CJC campus with the exception of those animals that are contained within vehicles in the parking lot and seeing eye dogs.

(OVER, PLEASE)

A NEW MUSIC CONCERT:

A new form of jazz will be presented at a New Music Concert, Sunday, January 18, at 3:00 p.m. in the Forum. Performing will be a group which includes Greg Ogden, a CJC student who is a member of the College Orchestra and Brass Ensemble. The concert will benefit the College music scholarship fund. Admission will be $1.25 and $.75 for students.

SURVEY:

Students are asked to respond to a survey being conducted on campus concerning employment data and other related career information. Blank forms are available at the Learning Resources Center, Admissions and Records Office, Career Information Center, Student Lounge, Job Placement Office and other points on campus. Completed forms may be turned in at these locations or in deposit boxes located around campus. Your cooperation will be appreciated. Data gathered will be used to provide more effective career services.

NEED EMPLOYMENT?:

Day and evening students as well as alumni who may be interested in part of full-time employment are encouraged to register with the campus Placement Service, Room 622-C, or telephone 532-3141, extension 261 for further information. Those students already registered and looking for employment are encouraged to make frequent checks of the bulletin boards which are located outside Room 622-C and at the Career Center (downstairs next to the Student Lounge) where current job openings are posted. This is especially important for those students who cannot be contacted by phone. Mail notification to students regarding new jobs delays applying. It is important to maintain close contact with the Placement Service in order to be immediately available for application and interviews.

GED TESTING:

The GED Test will be given on Wednesday, January 28, and Thursday, January 29, 1976, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Learning Skills Center, Room 104. A satisfactory score on the GED can provide units toward completion of the high school program. Students who are interested in taking the GED Test should see Mrs. Painter.

MOON ROCKS:

Thin sections of moon rocks will be on display during specified times in the Rotunda from Tuesday, January 13, to Friday, January 23. The paper-thin samples, on loan from NASA, will be available for viewing through petrographic microscopes. A thirty-minute slide and sound presentation on man's changing concept of the moon also will be shown. The slides will be on display in the Rotunda Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., Tuesday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. and Thursdays from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

PHOTOGRAPHS:

Photographs by Dale Batchelor are on display this month in the Rotunda. Batchelor teaches an evening introductory photography class for the College. Also to be included in the Rotunda display are weaving works by members of the Mother Lode Weavers and Spinners.

ASTRONAUT TO SPEAK:

Walter Cunningham, former Apollo astronaut, will give candid personal observations of his space venture on Thursday, January 15, at 8:00 p.m. at Sonora High School auditorium. His talk, "A Perspective on the U.S. and Soviet Manned Space Programs," is sponsored by the CJC Community Services Program to promote "What's Right With America" as part of the bicentennial observance. The talk is open to the public with no admission charged.

FAMILY CONCERT:

Tickets for a special family concert in San Jose featuring Aaron Copland, guest conductor and composer, and the San Jose Symphony, with the Martha Graham Dance Company, will be sold in advance by Ken Brungess, Barry Hunt or Terry Hoff. Reservations for the January 25 concert must be made today, January 12, 1976. The tickets sell for $4.00.

ATTENTION STUDENTS, FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATORS:

With our first hectic week behind us we can begin to settle back into our weekly schedules again. One of the routines which I hope you will establish and maintain this quarter is reading the "Weekly Bulletin" and "Mountain Times" on a regular basis and looking for my articles. I need to communicate my feelings to you and these two publications give me the greatest exposure. I also strongly encourage "feedback" from you in regards to your viewpoints since I make decisions concerning the College curriculum which affects you. Let's hear from each other!!

.....Robin Springfield, your student body representative

DROP-IN LUNCH IN THE WOMENS CENTER:

On Thursday, January 22, 1976, bring a lunch or come for coffee and refreshments. All women are encouraged to stop by the Womens Center for a rap session to share problems you have encountered in starting back to school. This may assist other women who would like to come back to school or are presently attending. You will have a chance to meet each other as well as other interesting people.

CHILD CARE:

If you are having problems with child care so that it is difficult for you to attend classes, why not sign your name, address and telephone number on the bulletin board in the Womens Center and possibly you and other students can exchange babysitting.

NASA FILM:

A film from the National Aeronautic and Space Administration (NASA) on the flight of the Apollo 7 will be available for viewing in Room 404 of the new Interdisciplinary Building during the daytimes this week. Astronaut, Walter Cunningham, will be at Sonora High School the evening of January 15 as part of the CJC Community Services Program. Anyone interested in seeing the film should contact Dr. Holst or instructional aide, John Pfost, in the Interdisciplinary Building, or is welcome to sit in on any showing in progress in Room 404.

LIBRARY TELEPHONE:

The number for the new Library night telephone at Columbia Junior College has been changed. Evening reference service is available from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday at 532-3142 on a direct line.

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS:

Students who are interested in Bible study are invited to attend an informal get-acquainted session on Thursday, January 15, from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. in Room 312.

MUSIC LISTENING HOUR:

Assorted selections from music literature covering all periods of music will be played each Monday 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. over the Forum's quadraphonic stereo system. Selections January 12, 1976, "Third String Quartet" - Bartok and "Concerto for Orchestra" - Bartok, and January 19, 1976, "Capriccio Espanol" - Rimsky-Korsakov and "Pines" - Respighi.

FILM:

"True Grit" will kick-off the CJC winter film series on Tuesday, January 20. John Wayne won an academy award as best actor for his portrayal of Rooster Cogburn in "True Grit." The winter series will include western adventure and rodeo films, two skiing movies and a political thriller. The free movies are shown each Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. in Room 620.

PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT:

Landscapes, wildflowers and children are the predominant subjects in a display of Photographic Impressions by Dale Batchelor this month in the Rotunda.

NOTICE OF SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE:

Since grades for Fall Quarter have now been recorded and many students have made good progress, these students are encouraged to apply for numerous scholarships that are offered by community people and organizations and are rewards for scholastic achievement. Qualifications are not always based entirely on need, so you are invited to be considered for these cash awards and recognition. Applications are available from Mrs. Painter.

ASSISTANCE FOR VOCATIONALLY ORIENTED STUDENTS:

You may qualify for assistance from the State Scholarship and Loan Commission through an Occupational Education and Training Grant (OETG). Applications are available in Mrs. Painter's office. Awards are made for special training programs in occupational education for students from low and middle income families. Selection is based primarily on vocational interest and aptitude. Applicants must submit the Parents' Confidential Statement, but do not need SAT scores. The deadline for mailing the application is February 27, 1976.

FINAL EXAMINATIONS:

Final examinations commence today, March 22, at 8:00 a.m. and continue through noon on March 25, 1976. Final examination schedules are available in the Admissions and Records Office.

DAY REGISTRATION:

Day registration will commence at 12:00 p.m. on March 25 for those students who have Permits to Register.

NOTICE - REGISTRATION PERMITS:

Students who have not received a Permit to Register and plan to attend Spring Quarter should contact their advisor immediately for program approval and obtain their Permits to Register in the Admissions and Records Office.

CAFETERIA:

Since registration will be held in the Cafeteria on Thursday, March 25, commencing at 12:00 p.m., cafeteria service will not be available that day.

SPRING QUARTER:

Classes for Spring Quarter, 1976, commence Monday, March 29, 1976.

SKI CLASS REFUNDS:

Students who were in the Alpine Ski Classes and eligible for refunds may pick them up from Jim Jordon in the Intramural Shed commencing Wednesday, March 24, 1976.

ATTENTION STUDENTS - IMPORTANT:

Your student government is formulating a questionnaire in an attempt to discover student opinions and viewpoints on existing curriculum, possible future course offerings, administrative procedures or whatever complaints you may have about anything directly or indirectly affecting you. Please look for our display near the Cafeteria during Registration. This questionnaire will only be effective if each of you are willing to commit just five minutes of your time. Your representatives need to present your perspective at their committee meetings - not just their own. Dealing with the administration is no easy task. Give us your support, please!!

REQUEST FOR JOB INFORMATION:

Students, faculty, staff members and friends of the College having knowledge of job openings are urged to pass this information along to the Job Placement Office, Room 622-C, 532-3141, extension 261. Part and full-time, day and evening, short or long term opportunities are all welcome. In the past, these leads have been valuable in helping the Job Placement Office place students. Your help is appreciated!

NEED EMPLOYMENT?:

Day and evening students as well as alumni who may be interested in part or full-time employment are encouraged to register with the campus Placement Service, Room 622-C, or telephone 532-3141, extension 261 for further information. Those students already registered and looking for employment are encouraged to make frequent checks of the bulletin boards which are located outside Room 622-C and at the Career Center (downstairs next to the Student Lounge) where current job openings are posted. Mail notification to students regarding new jobs delays applying. It is important to maintain close contact with the Placement Service in order to be immediately available for application and interviews.

BOOKSTORE:

The Manzanita Bookstore will buy books from students during the following hours:

March 22	12:00P	to	4:00P
March 23 and 24	8:00A	to	3:00P
	6:30P	to	8:30P
March 25	8:00A	to	12:00P

The Bookstore will be closed Thursday, March 25, at 12:00 p.m. and all day Friday, March 26, in order to stock shelves. Regular day hours begin again March 29. The Bookstore will be open during the evening Mondays through Thursdays the first two weeks of the Spring Quarter.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS:

The Columbia Junior College Foundation has made four scholarships available for individual study on an instrument or in voice for the Spring Quarter. Applications for these fifty dollar ($50) awards are available in the Dean of Student Services Office. Upon completion of the application form, it is to be submitted to the Dean of Student Services Office prior to 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 31, 1976. Applicants for the scholarships will have an audition before the awards committee of the Foundation and members of the music staff at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 1, 1976, in the Forum. Recipients will be announced on Friday, April 2, 1976.

Thursday at noon, April 15, a student meeting will be held in the Student Lounge to discuss non-smoking tables in the Cafeteria. Everyone is invited to attend. Other items for discussion will include the Spring Festival.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT QUESTIONNAIRE:

Thanks to those of you who took the time during registration to fill out the student government questionnaire. Our administrators will be needing a greater response from us if they are to consider this poll as being representative of student opinion. Therefore, a table will be set up in the Rotunda this week for those of you who can take five minutes out of your schedule to fill out the questionnaire. Be honest and candid with your answers. The results will be published in the Mountain Times. If you want to see changes occur on this campus, it will require some involvement on your part so your student representatives may speak on your behalf at their committee meetings. Your voice will be heard.

WEEKLY BULLETIN

April 26, 1976

INTENT TO GRADUATE:

The College catalog reminds students who are completing their A.A. degree this June that they should submit an Intent to Graduate by April 12; however, it is not too late if application is made immediately. The form is available in the Admissions and Records Office. Mrs. Shirley Appling, Evaluation Technician, will verify that all requirements are in the process of being met so the A.A. degree can be conferred on June 11, 1976.

NON-SMOKERS' AREA IN THE CAFETERIA:

For the benefit of non-smokers, an area in the Cafeteria will be designated as a no smoking section. The area will be well marked for identification purposes. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

DANCE WORKSHOP:

On Saturday, May 1, there will be a workshop in Afro-Haitian and Afro jazz dance for all interested students. The workshop will be taught by Albirida Rose, a professional dancer and teacher from San Francisco State University. The morning class will meet at 10:00 to 11:30 and the afternoon class at 1:00 to 2:30 in the gym (900). Sign up with Terry Hoff for one or both.
