WEEKLY BULLETIN

September 18, 1978

WELCOME:

Welcome to Columbia College! We hope that you all had a relaxing summer and are ready to accept the challenges offered to you this coming school year. The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Admissions and Records Office, Rotunda, Library, Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notice of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Dorothy Danz in the office of the Dean of Student Services by 12:00 p.m. Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

LATE REGISTRATION COUNSELING:

Counselors will be in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center during the first week of Fall Quarter, 1978, to assist any students who have not completed registration this term. Students registering late must obtain a counselor's approval prior to completing registration in the Admissions and Records Office.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for Fall Quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there is no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that can be taken for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.

CAFETERIA:

The Cafeteria will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

BOOKSTORE:

The Manzanita Bookstore is located next to the Cafeteria in the Learning Resources Center and will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Evening hours the first week of the quarter will be 6:30 to 8:30 and the second week from 6:30 to 7:30 Monday through Thursday. A full refund will be given on returned books only when accompanied by the class drop card and only from September 18 through October 6. A new book must be in new condition. If a book contains any markings or names, it will be considered a used book.

I.D. CARDS:

Student identification library cards will be required for checking out library books, audio-visual equipment and materials. Students who did not receive their cards at registration may pick them up in the Library.

NURSE'S HOURS:

Ruth Hagstrom, Campus Nurse, will be on campus daily in the Health Occupations Building. Her schedule will be as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Wednesday, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.; Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

INFORMATION - MUSIC CLASSES:

Choir (Music 160) will perform Handel's Messiah with the Community Orchestra and Chorus in December. Rehearsals start Monday, September 18, at 1:00 p.m. in the Forum (Room 600).

Auditions for Mountaineers (Music 164) will be held during the first class meeting, Tuesday, September 19, at 1:00 p.m. in the Forum.

Applied Music (Music 150 series) students MUST attend the first meeting on Friday, September 22, at 12:00 noon in the Forum (Room 600). Have your individual instructors secured by this meeting if at all possible.

Music students in performing classes (Music 130 through 179) are to enroll in Performance Practicum (Music 109). The first class meeting is on Wednesday, September 20, at 12:00 noon in the Forum.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS for private study are available for the Fall Quarter, 1978. Application forms are obtainable in the Student Services Office. Auditions for scholarships will be held on Friday, September 22, beginning at 3:00 p.m. in the Forum. Completed application forms must be submitted to the Student Services Office by 1:00 p.m. Friday, September 22, in order to be eligible for the auditions.

ORCHESTRA AWARD - A $300 ($100 per quarter) Orchestra Award in the memory of Ben Vogel is available to any full-time student who is a member of the Columbia Orchestra. Information about and applications for the award will be available at the first rehearsal of the Orchestra on Wednesday, September 20, at 7:00 p.m. in the Sonora Union High School Band Room.

WORKSHOP:

The Tuolumne River and other roadless areas that may be classified as wilderness areas will be the topic of a workshop on Wednesday, September 20, at 2:00 and 7:00 p.m. in Room 103. The programs, which are presented by the campus Environmental Outreach Organization, will include a slide presentation by Dave Brown of the California Wilderness Coalition.

GARAMENDI:

State Senator John Garamendi will be visiting our campus on Tuesday, September 19, to have informal chats with students and faculty. He will be here from 10:45 a.m. until 11:45 a.m. in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center.

WEEKLY BULLETIN

WE NEED YOU!:

If you have a car and can give assistance in a car pool or if you do not have a car and are in need of transportation, please contact Mike Henson or Anite LeGrand-Davis, Student Body President and Vice-President. You may also place your name and phone number on the bulletin board near the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center and indicate the time and days you can offer or need assistance.

PIANO RECITAL:

Florence Anderson, a concert pianist who lives in Twain Harte, will give a recital at noon on Wednesday, September 27, in the Forum. This program is open to the public without charge.

INTRAMURALS:

Intramurals provide the opportunity to play tennis, basketball, volleyball, ping pong, horseshoes, frisbee, to jog, weight train, etc., at a time to suit you. The fee is $3.00, the class is coed and worth one unit of credit. If interested, contact Charlie Penwill or Jim Jordan in the gymnasium area. Sign up now!

CHOOSING A CAREER?:

If you are considering physical education, recreation, outdoor education, hospitality management, social work, physiotherapy, recreation therapy, commercial recreation, etc., as a career, then you should take Intramural Leadership this quarter - two units of credit: Tuesdays 9:00 - 10:00 a.m., plus 3 hours by arrangement, Room 312. All inquiries may be directed to Charlie Penwill or Jim Jordan.

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS CLUB:

C.O.C. is planning to begin regular weekly meetings in the second week of October. Are you interested in what the Bible has to say? Are you a Christian in search of fellowship and instruction? Come and join with us. Sign up below the poster on the Rotunda bulletin board or outside Dick Dyer's office and let us know when you are free around mid-day. We will try to set a meeting time that will accommodate most of those interested.

THE LIBRARY IS MORE THAN A BUNCH OF BOOKS:

Libraries always have lots of books, right? Well, here at Columbia College the Library has much more to offer you: cassette tapes of all kinds--music from Beethoven to Yes, others from Shakespearean drama to California history of UFO'S and tape players to play them on; art prints of famous paintings for study or to decorate a room; road maps so you won't take a bum steer; slide-tape kits for study of human anatomy--or the innards of a caterpillar tractor; and typewriters for use at term paper time, or any time. You still want books? We have 32,000 of them! And almost 300 current magazine subscriptions. So come on in to the Library and check it out.

YOUR VOICE - THE COLLEGE NEWSPAPER:

A preliminary meeting is scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, October 3 and 4, in the Student Activities area (former newspaper office) to organize our student newspaper. Barry Hunt has consented to be the faculty advisor and will attend the Tuesday meeting. This is a self-supported student activity offering new experiences and needs your energy, interest and involvement, big or small. If you can't attend the meetings, all inquiries and/or suggestions can be made to Michael Putnam in the Student Activities office.

RECEPTION IN THE WOMEN'S CENTER:

Students and faculty are invited to a reception Tuesday, October 3, from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. in the Women's Center located near the Cafeteria. New or continuing women students are cordially invited -- come and bring your friends.

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS CLUB:

C.O.C. is planning to begin regular weekly meetings in the second week of October. Are you interested in what the Bible has to say? Are you a Christian in search of fellowship and instruction? Come and join with us. Sign up below the poster on the Rotunda bulletin board or outside Dick Dyer's office and let us know when you are free around mid-day. We will try to set a meeting time that will accommodate most of those interested.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS:

You are invited to a meeting Wednesday, October 4, from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center. A film will be shown so 100 percent attendance would be appreciated.

PLEASE SLOW DOWN:

An appeal to Columbia College students has been made by a resident of Saw Mill Flat Road to slow down their driving speed when traveling to and from the College. Concern was expressed for the elderly citizens who find it necessary to cross the road daily in order to pick up their mail. It has been reported that several family pets have been killed recently in this area due to speeding vehicles.

GED TESTING:

The General Educational Development Test (GED) for high school equivalency will be given to those who have indicated an interest on Wednesday and Thursday, October 4 and 5, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. The test fee of $10 is payable at the time test is taken.

LET'S RECYCLE!:

The Recycling Center is at the end of the last parking lot on campus. Please bring metals, bi-metals, aluminum and glass. You will find it is convenient to drop off your recyclables at any time when you are coming on or going off campus as the Center is always open. Let's conserve the last of our natural materials!

REMEMBER...tip-off time for the Columbia College vs. Chabot College basketball game this Thursday, November 30, in the Summerville High gymnasium is 7:00 p.m. Season tickets are still available at the Intramural Shed, Mother Lode Athletic on Washington Street and from individual basketball players. The price of the tickets is $2 for students and $5 for non-students.

TUTANKHAMUN COMES TO COLUMBIA:

"The Treasures of Tutankhamun," a narrated slide show picturing the major artifacts now touring United States museums, will be shown twice this week on the Columbia College campus. The half-hour free presentation will be given Tuesday, November 28, at 12:00 p.m. in Room 400 (Interdisciplinary Building) and on Wednesday, November 29, at 12:00 p.m. in Room 300 (Physical Sciences Building). The many golden and bejewelled objects are part of the exhibition that will appear in San Francisco next year before returning permanently to Cairo. After the two showings this week, the slide show will be available for viewing at the Library Audio-Visual Department.

ROTUNDA DISPLAY:

Photographs by John Senser depicting fall color in Zion National Park in Utah are on display in the Rotunda. Aspens, maples and box elders provide brilliant color against the sandstone walls of the park. The exhibit will continue through December 15.

WINTER QUARTER ADVISEMENT CONTINUES:

Advisement for Winter Quarter, 1979, will continue this week. Students planning to take Winter Quarter classes may obtain Registration Forms and Permits to Register in the Admissions and Records Office.

GRADES:

In the past, final grades have been mailed to students. However, with the passage of Proposition #13 forcing budget cutbacks, final grades will not be mailed at the end of Fall Quarter. Students may pick up their grades commencing January 2. Students who want their grades mailed may leave a stamped, addressed envelope at the Admissions and Records Office.

G.E.D. TESTS:

General Education Development (G.E.D.) Tests will be given Thursday and Friday, December 7 and 8, in Room 104 of the Learning Resources Center at 1:00 p.m. This test may be used toward high school equivalency. For further information contact Jim Kindle in Learning Skills or Barbara Painter in Student Services.

TEXTBOOK BUYBACK:

The Manzanita Bookstore pays as high as 50% of the list price on textbooks needed for subsequent quarters. Resell your used texts at the Bookstore on December 11 - 15 from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Evening hours on Monday and Tuesday, December 11 and 12 will be 6:30 to 7:30.

DRAMA PRESENTATIONS:

Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol" will be staged Wednesday through Sunday, December 6 through 10, by the Columbia College Drama Department. Evening performances are scheduled at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday and matinees at 2:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. A Dickens' Faire with vendors offering a variety of crafts and food items for sale will precede each performance. Tickets at $1.00 for students (elementary through college) and senior citizens (with medical card) and $2.50 for adults may be purchased in the Community Services Office, from cast members or at the door.

TYPEWRITERS AVAILABLE:

Free typewriters are available for student use in the Library's Typing Room. Six manuals and one electric typewriter are available. Students may also use the electric typewriters in the typing lab (Room 700) Monday through Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and on Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Evening hours are 6:30 to 9:30 on Monday and Wednesday.

MODERN DANCE DEMONSTRATION:

Come see what a Modern Dance Class has to offer -- from warm-ups and cross-the-floor work to improvisation and original choreography! Monday, December 11, from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. in the Forum.

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS:

LATE REGISTRATION COUNSELING:

Counselors will be in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center during the first two days of Winter Quarter, January 2 and 3, to assist any students who have not completed registration this term. Students registering late must obtain a counselor's approval prior to completing registration in the Admissions and Records Office.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Student Services Office, the Library, Admissions and Records Office, Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notice of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Dorothy Danz in the office of the Dean of Student Services by noon Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for Winter Quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there are no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that may be taken for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.

MANZANITA BOOKSTORE:

The Manzanita Bookstore is located next to the Cafeteria in the Learning Resources Center and will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Evening hours the first week of the quarter will be 6:30 to 8:30 and the second week 6:30 to 7:30 Monday through Thursday. A full refund will be given on returned books only when accompanied by the class drop card and only from January 2 through 19, 1979. A new book must be in new condition. If a book contains any markings or names, it will be considered a used book.

FALL QUARTER GRADES:

If you have not picked up your Fall Quarter grades in the Admissions and Records Office, be sure to do so as soon as possible.

CAREER INFORMATION CENTER:

The Career Information Center, located downstairs next to the Cafeteria, is open to all students. Material and information pertaining to careers, available jobs, housing information, and a complete library of college catalogs are available. Students are welcome to browse around the Center and get acquainted with the many services offered. The Center is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

APPLICATION FORMS:

Seasonal application forms for the Forest Service and the California State Parks are still available in the Learning Skills Center. Form #171 is also available to use when applying for a maintenance job with the National Parks System or when applying for a job with the Youth Conservation Corps. Sorry, seasonal application forms for the National Parks System are no longer available.

WOMEN'S CENTER:

Do you know where to find the Women's Center? It is located in the Learning Resources Center between the Cafeteria, Career Information Center and the Student Lounge. All of these places are welcome areas for students. You will meet Phyllis Hernandez, a new person in the Women's Center this quarter, as well as Margaret Sciaroni, College Re-entry Coordinator, who is always ready to assist you.

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS:

Transfer students in need of financial aid may pick up forms from Dolores Connitt in the Financial Aid Office or from Barbara Painter.

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS:

Are you in need of spiritual help and guidance? Do you have situations in which you need prayer? If so, come to Room 622 on any Tuesday from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. and join other Christians for fellowship and Bible study. Everyone is welcome and there are no dues.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Students who have received scholarships may contact Barbara Painter to claim their awards for Winter Quarter.

ROTUNDA DISPLAY:

Pottery, baskets, weavings, Kachina dolls, beaded ornaments and wearing apparel from the William Walter American Indian Artifact collection are on display in the Rotunda through January 19. The Rotunda is open to the public Monday through Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Rotunda is closed weekends and holidays.

TAX GUIDES AVAILABLE IN THE LIBRARY:

Do you need some guidance in preparing your income tax forms? The Library has the new 1979 editions of two well-known books on income tax preparation to help take the headache out of filing IRS forms. They are: TAX GUIDE FOR EDUCATORS, and J. K. Lasser's YOUR INCOME TAX. Each of these books is available for a one-week loan -- ask at the Library Circulation Desk.

PARTIAL ECLIPSE:

A partial eclipse of the sun will be visible with special optical equipment at the campus observatory on Monday, February 26. The observatory will be open from 7:00 to 9:30 a.m. for viewing of the more than 85 percent eclipse which will reach maximum at 8:06 a.m. The eclipse will be the last one visible this century from the continental United States or Canada. Tom Holst says there are safe ways to observe an eclipse, but one should never look directly at the sun.

LATE REGISTRATION COUNSELING:

Counselors will be in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center during the first two days of Spring Quarter, April 2 and 3, to assist any students who have not completed registration this term. Students registering late must obtain a counselor's approval prior to completing registration in the Admissions and Records Office.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Student Services Office, the Library, Admissions and Records Office, Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notice of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Dorothy Danz in the office of the Dean of Student Services by noon Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for Spring Quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there are no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that may be taken for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.
