

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

September 17, 1979

WELCOME!

Welcome to Columbia College! We hope that you all had a relaxing summer and are ready to accept the challenges offered to you this coming school year. The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Admissions and Records Office, Rotunda, Library, Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notice of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Dorothy Danz in the office of the Dean of Student Services by 12:00 p.m. Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

LATE REGISTRATION COUNSELING:

Counselors will be in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center during the first two days of Fall Quarter to assist any students who have not completed registration this term. Students registering late must obtain a counselor's approval prior to completing registration in the Admissions and Records Office.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for Fall Quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there is no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that will be taken for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.

CAFETERIA:

The Cafeteria will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

BOOKSTORE:

The Manzanita Bookstore is located next to the Cafeteria in the Learning Resources Center and will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Evening hours the first week of the quarter will be 6:30 to 8:00 and the second week from 6:30 to 7:30 Monday through Thursday. A full refund will be given on returned books only when accompanied by the class drop card and only from September 17 through October 5. A new book must be in new condition. If a book contains any markings or names, it will be considered a used book.

(OVER)

I.D. CARDS:

Student identification library cards will be required for checking out library books, audio-visual equipment and materials. Students who did not receive their cards at registration may pick them up in the Library.

NURSE'S HOURS:

Ruth Hagstrom, Campus Nurse, will be on campus daily in the Health Occupations Building. Her schedule will be as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Wednesday, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.; Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Students may want to see an advisor to verify course requirements for degree and certificate programs or for transfer. However, if you choose not to see an advisor, you may program yourself.

REGISTRATION:

Winter Quarter Registration is scheduled for January 2, 1979, which is also the first day of the quarter. Forms and Permits to Register will be available in the Admissions and Records Office commencing on November 27. Students will not be permitted to register without either an advisor's signature or self-program stamp on the registration program card. The form must also be completed with classes you intend to take during Winter Quarter.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAYS:

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, classes will not be held Thursday and Friday, November 23 and 24.

G.E.D. TESTS:

General Education Development (G.E.D.) tests will be given Thursday and Friday, December 7 and 8, in Room 104 of the Learning Resources Center at 1:00 p.m. This test may be used toward high school equivalency. For further information contact Jim Kindle in Learning Skills or Barbara Painter in Student Services.

GRADES:

In the past final grades have been mailed to students. However, with the passage of Proposition #13 forcing budget cutbacks, final grades will not be mailed at the end of Fall Quarter. Students may pick up their grades commencing January 2. Students who want their grades mailed may leave a stamped, addressed envelope at the Admissions and Records Office.

BASKETBALL:

Tip-off time for Columbia College's first game of the basketball season is 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 30, in the Summerville High School gymnasium. Season tickets are still available and may be purchased on campus at the Intramural Shed, Mother Lode Athletic on Washington Street and from the basketball players. The price of the tickets is $2 for students and $5 for non-students.

EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION MEETING:

Seasonal and full-time employment opportunities offered by the US Forest Service and the California Division of Forestry will be outlined for students on Wednesday, November 29, in Room 300 at 1:00 p.m. Tony Montana of the Sonora office of Forest Service and Ray Steward of the Division of Forestry in San Andreas will provide information about employment programs.

(OVER)

FOOD STAMP PROGRAM INFORMATION:

Patsy Sterling will be on campus today, November 20, in the Women's Center to tell students about the Food Stamp Program. Ms. Sterling serves as an outreach liaison for the mountain counties and she has invited students to meet with her between 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. for pre-screening or to answer questions.

FORTHCOMING INTRAMURAL ACTIVITIES:

Tuesday, November 21: 12:30 p.m. FREE TURKEY TROT - 1 mile - no entry fee! Engraved medals for first three male and first three female finishers and oldest male and female finishers. Sign up sheet and course details in the P.E. Shed.

Tuesday, November 28, Thursday, November 30 and Tuesday, December 5: Columbia "Superman" and "Wonderwoman" competition. Full details available in P.E. Shed.

NOTICE:

It arrives with amazing regularity and it's here again--you guess it--TERM PAPER TIME. Before you push the panic button, come to the Library for help with your research, check out a book on how to write term papers (the subject heading is "REPORT WRITING") and use one of our seven free typewriters (one is electric!). Just in case you make a mistake, "Ko-Rec-Type" is available at the Circulation Desk. You supply the paper, brains and perspiration.

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS MEETING:

You are invited to join the Christians on Campus this week on Tuesday, November 21, at 12:00 p.m. in Room 622.

ALASKA WORKSHOP:

An Alaska Workshop will be held Monday, November 20, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. in Room 621 by the campus Environmental Outreach group. The U.S. House of Representatives acted to put Alaskan wilderness lands into the national conservation system, but the Senate has not. Support is needed so President Carter will take action to preserve the wilderness lands.

SKI CLUB MEETING:

This week's meeting will be held in Room 110 at 12:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 21. A trip to Bear Valley is planned for the weekend of December 8 and 9. Come to the meeting for details. Students and staff are welcome!

LATE REGISTRATION COUNSELING:

Counselors will be in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center during the first two days of Winter Quarter, January 2 and 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., to assist any students who have not completed registration for this term.

GRADES:

Fall Quarter grades are available in the Admissions and Records Office. If you have not picked up your grades, please do so as soon as possible.

NOTICE:

It will be to your advantage to dress warmly this winter. The energy conservation program requires thermostats to be set at 65 degrees. The College maintenance crew is merely following the requirements set up by the federal government.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

The "Weekly Bulletin" will be available every Monday morning in the Student Services Office, the Library, Admissions and Records Office, the Bookstore and the distribution box by the Cafeteria. Notice of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the "Weekly Bulletin" should submit copy to Dorothy Danz in the office of the Dean of Student Services by noon Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for Winter Quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there are no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that may be taken for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.

CAFETERIA:

The Cafeteria will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

NO DEPOSIT--FREE RETURN:

The Columbia College Library is celebrating National Library Week by declaring a fine-free amnesty period from April 14-25. All fines on overdue materials returned during these two weeks will be forgiven. This is your chance to recycle those books and tapes that are overdue and lying about unused without paying a penalty for their being overdue. But hurry--this offer is good only during the heady days of National Library Week(s).

FAMILY FILM SERIES BEGINS:

The Tuolumne County Library is inaugurating a family film series to be held the second Monday of every month in the County Library's meeting room. Monday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. will feature films of interest for adults, children and teens: "Paddington Hits Out," "Golden Fish," "Sea Creatures," "The Ride," plus a surprise film. The Library is located at 465 South Washington Street with parking lot entrance on Stewart Street in Sonora.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Students wishing to enroll or re-enroll in Work Experience may do so by completing a registration form available in the Admissions Office or Career Center. Mr. Cobb, Work Experience Coordinator, has Work Experience Seminars on Monday and Wednesday from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in Room 401/402 and Monday and Thursday evenings from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. If you are interested, you may contact Mr. Cobb during these times.

NATURAL FOOD CONTEST:

All entries for the Natural Food Contest must be dropped off at the Student Activities Office no later than 10:00 a.m. Tuesday morning. The office is located by the Women's Center and Student Lounge. Arrangements will be made for refrigeration and heating. Your recipe must accompany your dish.

EARTH DAY:

Tuesday, April 22, is the tenth anniversary of the first Earth Day. Earth Day 1980 will be celebrated this year with a half-day of speeches, films, slide presentations, displays, and demonstrations. At 12:00 noon the Natural Foods contest will be held by the lake. Following the judging of this contest will be two speakers: Michael Skenfield on appropriate technology and Richard Anderson on organic gardening. During this time, there will be information tables outside the Cafeteria pertaining to Mono Lake, the local Audubon Society, energy, Friends of the River, and more. After the speeches, everyone may adjourn to Room 300 for a film on America's wilderness, two films on nuclear energy, a slide presentation on Mono Lake and New Melones, and a short presentation on the College recycling center. Accompanying these events will be a photographic display in the Rotunda and a solar energy demonstration. Everyone is invited to attend and wish our planet a happy birthday!

NO DEPOSIT-FREE RETURN (CONTINUED):

For one more exciting week, the Library is celebrating National Library Week(s) by forgiving any overdue fines on Library materials returned NOW. Be sure to check the nooks and crannies of your car, house, moped, etc. for any overlooked library items, and get them back while the getting's free. Offer expires Friday, April 25.

INTENT TO GRADUATE:

The College Catalog reminds students who are completing their A.A. degree this June that they should submit an Intent to Graduate by April 14; however, it is not too late if application is made immediately. The form is available in the Admissions and Record Office. Mrs. Shirley Appling, Evaluation Technician, will verify that all requirements are in the process of being met so the A.A. degree can be conferred on June 17, 1980.

WE CAN GET IT FOR YOU:

Before term paper time really hits, you should know that the collections of other libraries throughout the state are accessible to Columbia College students through Interlibrary Loan. If you need an item that is not in the Columbia College Library, we can probably get it for you through our membership in the Central Association of Libraries, a group of more than 50 libraries served by daily delivery service. This service also enables community residents to return books checked out from the College Library to the County Library in downtown Sonora if it is more convenient. So, if you don't readily find what you need in the Library, ask the staff to get it for you on Interlibrary Loan.

ROTUNDA DISPLAY:

Watercolors, oils and woodcut prints by the late Charlie Surendorf, Columbia artist, are on display in the Rotunda. The works were given to the Columbia College Foundation by Surendorf last spring. The exhibit will continue until May 15.

STUDENT ART SHOW:

Anyone who has been enrolled in Columbia College classes during the current school year may submit up to three entries in this year's juried student art show. Entries will be judged in eight categories: oil painting and acrylics, watercolors, mixed media and graphics, sculpture, ceramics and pottery, textiles and needlework, jewelry and photography. Entry forms and information sheets are available from art instructors and the Community Services Office. Entries will be accepted Friday, May 16, from noon to 6:00 p.m. in the Rotunda.

NOTICE:

A special discussion session with John Pedri, County Surveyor, will be featured at the local planning issues workshop taught by Tina Deatsch. Discussion topics will include: land surveyors - Tuolumne County's first planners, and an explanation of surveying work as it relates to the planning process today. Anyone interested in local planning issues and/or land surveying is invited to attend Wednesday, April 30, 1980, at 7:00 p.m. in Room 310 (Forestry Building).

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY:

A Friends of the Library group is being formed to support the activities of the Tuolumne County Public Library. The first meeting will be held Monday, April 28, at 8:00 p.m. in the County Library's meeting room. The Friends group will also provide an avenue for community input of ideas for library service to the library staff.
