

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

September 19, 1980

WELCOME!

Welcome to Columbia College! We hope that you all had a relaxing summer and are ready to accept the challenges offered to you this coming school year. Future "Weekly Bulletins" will be available every Monday morning in the Admissions and Records Office, Rotunda, Library, Bookstore and the distribution box by the cafeteria. Notices of meetings, student activities and items of interest to the student body are reported. Anyone wishing to have notices placed in the Weekly Bulletin should submit copy to Dorothy Danz in the office of the Dean of Student Services by 12:00 noon Thursday for publication on the following Monday.

LATE REGISTRATION COUNSELING:

Advisement

Counselors will be in the Rotunda of the Learning Resources Center during the first two days of fall quarter from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to assist any students who have not completed registration this term. Students registering late must obtain a counselor's approval prior to completing registration in the Admissions and Records Office.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for fall quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there are no adequate means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that will be taken for students are emergency-type messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.

CAFETERIA:

The cafeteria will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

BOOKSTORE:

The Manzanita Bookstore is located next to the cafeteria in the Learning Resources Center and will be open from 7:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Evening hours the first week of the quarter will be 6:30 to 8:00 and the second week from 6:30 to 7:30 Monday through Thursday. A full refund will be given on returned books only when accompanied by the class drop card and only from September 22 through October 10. A new book must be in new condition. If a book contains any markings or names, it will be considered a used book.

(OVER)

I.D. CARDS:

Student identification library cards will be required for checking out library books, audio-visual equipment and materials. Students who did not receive their cards at registration may pick them up in the Library.

NURSE'S HOURS:

Ruth Hagstrom, Campus Nurse, will be on campus daily in the Health Occupations Building. Her schedule will be as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; Wednesday, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.; Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

SCHOLARSHIPS:

Students who have been awarded scholarships from Columbia or high school are encouraged to check with Elsie Bruno, Counseling Office, so that funds can be made available.

BROWN BAG CONCERT:

On Wednesday, September 24, at 12:00 noon in the Forum, the Music Department will present a free concert featuring mezzo-soprano Jeanne Link and pianist Marjorie Moran performing Italian, German and English songs. Bring your lunch.

ROTUNDA DISPLAY:

Works by full and part-time college art instructors are on display in the Rotunda. Among those contributing are Dale Bunse, Joel Barber, Peg Finger and Fred Meinke. The exhibit will continue through October 10.

FALL INTERNATIONAL FILM SERIES:

Season tickets for the Fall International Film Series on campus are available. Three films remain to be shown: October 9 "Scenes from a Marriage" (Swedish), November 13 "Swept Away" (Italian) and December 11 "Stolen Kisses" (French). The films will be shown at 7:30 p.m. in the Forum on the listed dates. Season ticket price is $6.39 general admission and $5.25 for students, senior citizens and members of the Central Sierra Arts Council, which is co-sponsoring the series with the College Community Services Office. Tickets for individual showings may be purchased for $3.00 and $2.50 respectively. Ticket order forms are available in the Admissions Office, Library and Community Services Office.

LIBRARY WELCOMES STUDENTS AND COMMUNITY:

The Library welcomes new and returning students to use the collection of books, audio tapes and periodicals. Open Monday to Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., and Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., the Library is available to students and community residents. Books are checked out for a three-week period and may be renewed if not requested by another student. Your registration card is also your Library I.D. card and can be picked up at the Circulation Desk if not received during registration.

GED (HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY) TEST:

The first GED test for this quarter will be held on October 15 and 16 with a second testing date of December 3 and 4. A $10.00 testing fee is required and can be paid in the Business Office located in the Learning Resources Center, or at the time of testing. Please contact the Student Services Office or Admissions Office if you are interested in being tested.

RECYCLING CENTER:

The College's Recycling Center will be officially open on Wednesday, October 1, 1980. Acceptable materials include glass, aluminum, and newsprint. The Center will not accept tin, bimetals, plastic, or garbage. All glass containers should be rinsed free of food particles before turning them in at the Center and newsprint should be bundled with string or placed in brown paper bags to prevent soilage and therefore be acceptable at the Jamestown Recycling Center. Please place materials in correct barrel in front of the Center or on the ground in front if the barrels are full. Please do not mix crushed glass with aluminum or whole glass. Newsprint can be placed on the wooden rack in the corner...thank you!

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN JUNIOR COLLEGES:

This "no-money" honors program rewards and recognizes outstanding students actively enrolled in community and junior colleges. In addition to local and national publicity, selected students will have their individual biography presented in the 1981 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges, a prestigious volume that provides tribute to the leaders of today's college generation. A personalized certificate will be awarded at the June 1981 graduation ceremony. Selected students will also have lifetime use of the Who's Who Reference Service (preparation of individual letters of recommendation and biographical materials to prospective colleges and/or postgraduate employers). Criteria for application: 1) Sophomore standing (completion of a maximum of 45 quarter units and no more than 90 quarter units), 2) Minimum GPA of 3.0 (B) on 4.0 scale, 3) Signature of Columbia College faculty member or administrator on application, 4) Above average participation in extracurricular activities and community service, 5) Full-time student status (enrolled in 12 or more units this quarter). Applications are available today in the Student Services Office. DUE THIS FRIDAY, November 21, at 4:00 p.m. in the Student Services Office.

RECYCLING CENTER:

The Recycling Center is receiving a sufficient amount of trash mixed with the incoming materials. Please separate your recyclable materials from trash and garbage before bringing them to the Center. Also, the Center is receiving a lot of tin cans. Canned food containers are tin and not aluminum; therefore, canned food containers cannot be recycled. Please encourage family, friends and neighbors to bring their recycling materials to the College..thank you!

BAKE SALE:

NEW SCHOLARSHIPS:

Lola Lovas Foundation Scholarship--consists of an interest-free loan of up to $1,000 for each of two or three consecutive years depending upon major. Qualifications include the following criteria:

- a. Must be from a low income family who, without a scholarship loan probably would be unable to pursue a higher education beyond community college level;
- b. Must be in the upper third of his/her class up to the time selected;
- c. Be one who has demonstrated throughout his/her high school and community college years, leadership qualities and a keen interest in the welfare and well-being of people about him/her to a degree that those acquainted with him recognize in him a desire to help others to lead better, more useful and rewarding lives, even as s/he seeks and achieves these same goals for her/himself.

Applications are available now in the Student Services Office and will be due by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, December 5.

Norman Topping Student Aid Fund Grant--applications are now available in the Student Services area. The purpose of this fund is to make a contribution to the community at large "availing socio-economically disadvantaged students to attend the University of Southern California (USC)." Selection will be based on high financial need, socio-economic background, academic potential for undergraduate work, past volunteer involvement and demonstrated social awareness and concern.

Requirements:

- a. Be an entering freshman, transfer or graduate student for 1981-82 academic year;
- b. Have a 2.5 cumulative G.P.A. or higher in previous academic work;
- c. Be willing to volunteer a minimum of 20 hours per semester to some worthy community activity;
- d. Have the requisite financial need as determined by the College Scholarship Service, the USC Financial Aid Office and the NTSAP;
- e. File a Financial Aid Form (FAF or SAAC) with the College Scholarship Service; a financial aid application and 1040 tax form with the USC Financial Aid Office; and if California resident, file an application for a Cal Grant A and B if undergraduate;
- f. Meet all deadlines as set by the USC Financial Aid Office, the College Scholarship Service and the California Student Aid Commission.

BANK OF AMERICA SCHOLARSHIP:

Congratulations to KATY HOLT, winner of $500 in the second round of the Northern California competition. Katy competed last week in Oakland against the winners from seven bay area community colleges in the field of Social Science and Humanities. She will go on to the final competition in April where she has the opportunity to win $2,500. Good luck, Katy!

GRADES:

Winter Quarter grades will be available in the Admissions and Records Office the week of April 6.

STUDENT SCHEDULES:

Students who have completed registration for Spring Quarter will find their class schedules on the table outside the Admissions and Records Office.

PARKING:

Parking Lots A, B, C and D are available for student parking. Please observe all posted signs and traffic regulations. Violators of parking regulations are subject to having their vehicles towed away at the owner's expense.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS:

Since there are no means of communication between the office on campus and the classrooms, the only messages that may be taken for students are "emergency-type" messages. Please make other arrangements with family and friends for direct communication with you.

DOG RULES:

All domestic animals are banned from the campus with the exception of those animals contained within vehicles in the parking lot and Seeing Eye Dogs.

Nomination forms are due on May 29, 1981.

FOOTHILLS STUDY AVAILABLE IN LIBRARY:

The State Office of Planning and Research study on the Sierra Nevada foothills region is now available in the College Library. This controversial report makes recommendations on how the foothills area should prepare for and handle the expected population boom and the concomitant problems of water shortage, traffic congestion and air pollution. The report is sure to displease either environmentalists or developers (or both?), but it is an important look at how the state views foothills development. Another title of similar interest by the same state office is "The Growth Revolt: Aftershock of Proposition 13?"

NOTICE:

Geology and Biology of the Stanislaus and Tuolumne River will be the subject of a talk by Dr. W. H. Wright, professor of geology at Sonoma State University on Monday, May 11, at 7:00 p.m. in Room 300.

A schedule of the activities will be posted in the Rotunda. Displays and information tables will be at lakeside.

WE WANT YOUR OPINION:

The Audio-Visual Department of the Library is currently conducting a survey. This is a great opportunity to let the AV Department know what you like and don't like, as well as what you would like offered or changed. If you are unaware of our existence, this is your opportunity to find out. The survey is one sheet, easy to fill out, and will be available on all campus bulletin boards. Collection boxes will be located in the Cafeteria, the Interdisciplinary building, Business building, Art building and the Biology building. The few minutes invested in filling out this short survey will be greatly appreciated and will help us serve you better.

The eighth annual Columbia College student art show is on display in the Rotunda.

NATIONAL MEDICATION AWARENESS TEST:

How to get the most benefit from prescription medicine will be shown in the National Medication Awareness Test, presented Monday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 300. Local pharmacist Mike Ghiorso will present the slide program and be joined by other local pharmacists for a question and answer period.

JAZZ CHOIR CONCERTS:

The award-winning Columbia College Jazz Choir will be joined by community and high school groups for two jazz concerts this week. The Calaveras County Community Chorus, Bret Harte and Calaveras High School choirs and the Columbia College madrigal singers will perform with the Jazz Choir Tuesday, May 19. The Summerville High and Modesto Junior College jazz choirs will perform with the Jazz Choir on Thursday, May 21. Both concerts are scheduled at 8:00 p.m. in the Forum. Admission is free.

GOT THE JOB-HUNTING BLUES?

Finding a job is hard enough without making it harder with a bad first impression. A well-written letter of application along with a concise and informative resume are valuable aids in getting that job you want. The Library has many books that can help you through this part of the job finding and getting process. Check the subject part of the card catalog under "Resumes" and "Applications for Positions" for a full listing of available materials. Then come back later for materials on "Employment Interviewing."

ADVISEMENT FOR FALL QUARTER, 1981:

Advisement for students planning to return Fall Quarter, 1981, continues. Students should make appointments with their advisors or counselors for their fall program approval as soon as possible. This should be done immediately as advisors are not available during the summer. Permits to register may be obtained in the Admissions and Records Office after completing the program cards.

GRADES:

Students who would like to have their grades mailed should leave a stamped, self-addressed envelope in the Admissions and Records Office. Grades will be mailed as soon as they are available.

ATTENTION VETERANS:

There has been a change in VA policy for payment of education benefits between Summer Session and Fall Quarter, 1981. Any veteran planning to enroll for Summer Session should contact the Veterans Office immediately.

DRAMA PRODUCTION:

Come and enjoy an evening of outdoor theatre! Five performances of the Columbia College drama production of "Once Upon a Mattress," based on the fairy tale The Princess and the Pea, will be staged Wednesday through Sunday this week in Carkeet Park. Limited seating is available for 8:30 p.m. performances. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students, children and senior citizens. They may be purchased in advance from the Community Services Office during the day or the Admissions Office Monday and Tuesday evenings from 6:00 to 10:00. If seating is available, tickets will be sold at the box office before each performance.

NOTICE:

Students who have not picked up their art show entries are asked to do so as soon as possible. See Jan in the Community Services Office.

THE END IS NEAR:

The deadline for return of all Library materials is Monday, June 15. Be sure to bring back all books, tapes, magazines, pamphlets and art prints by that date. Overdue items are subject to a fine of 25¢ per week and a hold placed on your College records.

TEXTBOOK BUYBACK:

The Manzanita Bookstore pays as high as 50% of the list price on textbooks needed for subsequent quarters. Resell your used texts at the Bookstore on June 15-19 from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Also, there will be a representative from a wholesale textbook company to purchase your surplus copies of textbooks on June 15-17 from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

ROTUNDA DISPLAY:

An exhibit featuring California's 1879 Constitution will be on display this week in the Rotunda through the end of June. The century old Constitution remains as California's basic governing document despite having been amended over 350 times. The exhibit was put together by the California State Archives staff in the office of the Secretary of State.
