WELCOME TO FALL SEMESTER, 1989

LATE REGISTRATION AND ADVISEMENT

All counselors will be available to assist students during the first two weeks of classes. A special calendar has been established and students should stop by the counseling secretary's desk to schedule an appointment or check drop-in times.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES FOR STUDENTS

The only message service a student can expect will be on an emergency basis due to lack of intercom or paging facilities.

ADMISSIONS AND RECORDS

Late registration for all students will be held from August 21 through August 25, 1989. Please make sure all student information is correct and current in the A&R office (i.e. name, address, phone). If you have changed or are about to change any of the previously mentioned information, stop by A&R immediately.

HOUSING RESIDENTS

A MANDATORY meeting for all students who are Columbia College housing residents will be held Tuesday, August 22 and Thursday, August 24 in the Forum (Room 600) at 12:30 (College Hour). Please bring note taking materials to the meetings.

MANZANITA BOOKSTORE

Paintings and prints by Charles Surendorf (1909-1979), artist of the Mother Lode, are on display in the Rotunda. The paintings depict Columbia scenes between 1937 and 1964, many pre-dating the town's admission to the California State Park system in 1945 and restoration of the buildings to their 1870 appearance. The paintings are on loan to the Columbia College Foundation.

JOB PLACEMENT

Kelly Temporary Services will be on campus October 12 to interview students who may be interested in temporary part-time positions. The jobs are local and there are many positions available, from general clerical to hourly labor positions. For more information or to sign up for the interview, stop by the Career/Transfer Center or the counseling secretary's desk.

SOFTBALL GAMES
The Columbia College Dorm team will play tonight against the Railtown Team. Game time is 6 p.m. at Merlo Field. Students and staff are invited to play or cheer the team to victory. For more information contact Nathan Ellerbe at 533-3039.

EDUCATIONAL PLAN WORKSHOP SCHEDULE FOR SEPTEMBER

Thursday	September 28	6 p.m. - 8 p.m.	Room 108
----------	--------------	-----------------	----------

Here is your opportunity to get your school act together. You may attend any one of the workshops listed above in order to do your long range course planning. Remember, all new students must have an Educational Plan on file prior to December 5, 1989 when we will begin registration for the Spring semester. What a relief it will be to know how to get where you want to go!! Sign-up for your workshop preference with the counseling secretary. Space is limited, so please plan ahead.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA TRANSFER CORE CURRICULUM

The lower division general education breadth requirements for transfer to any University of California (U.C.) campus (effective Fall, 1989) are available now in the Career/Transfer Center, Admissions and Records Office or the Counseling Office. If you are planning to transfer to a U.C. campus, you may use these requirements to complete your Educational Plan.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

The State Department of Education has just informed Columbia College of delays in the design of the relocatable Child Development Center that will prevent the opening for the spring semester on campus as previously scheduled. The state does expect to have the facility delivered and installed sometime next spring. It should be fully operational for the fall semester 1990.

AND THE WINNERS ARE . . .

On September 14, Health Services sponsored the first health program of the fall, 1989 semester. Nancy Feldman from U.C. Davis Extension, Tuolumne County Farm and Home Advisor, presented information on cooking and shopping on a small budget. Door prizes were won by: Rebecca Foley, Leilani Taylor, and Kathryn McDaniel - a bag of groceries each; Diane Warren - a crock pot.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS AND STAFF!!!

Starting today the Student Senate will be holding their annual CAN THE PRESIDENT DRIVE. All of you are encouraged to attempt to fill Ron Hamilton's (the Student Senate President's) office with canned foods, bags of potatoes, and other Thanksgiving foodstuffs. Money is also being accepted. Last year our efforts collected enough food and money to feed 200 local families. There are drop-off boxes in the Student Senate office and in the Rotunda. We will also be taking donations at the November 11 Columbia College basketball game at Sonora High School. On November 10 we will be going door to door asking the community for their support in our efforts. So, join the fun and catch the spirit of the holiday season now. For more information, contact Ron Hamilton.

HEALTH SERVICES

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!! A special THANK YOU to the Columbia College Firehouse EMT's who volunteered their time and expertise during the Blood Pressure Clinic last week. During the clinic (sponsored by Health Services), the firemen checked the blood pressures of 140 students, faculty and staff. The firemen were: Gordon Dulcich, Cory Haas, Thomas Lass, Jeff Lowrimore, Jeff Rishel, Andy Rosenbaum, Eric Vollmer, Mike Vonada and Shane Warner. If you missed your blood pressure check and free fruit this semester, Health Services will sponsor another Blood Pressure Clinic during the Spring Semester.

More Health Services news. During the Blood Pressure Clinic last week, several people inquired about cholesterol testing. If enough people are interested in having a cholesterol check here at the college arrangements can be made with a local hospital. The charge will be approximately $8.00 for the test. Contact the College Nurse, Dee Hall, RN, at 533-5204 or stop by the nurse's office if you are interested in more info.

For more information contact Bill Taylor at 532-9894. The Bulletin will continue this ad if you need more information.

ACCIDENTS ON CAMPUS

College policy requires that an injured student complete an accident report within 24 hours after an accident that occurs on campus. Accident report forms are available from most instructors, the College Nurse and the Business Office. After the form is completed it must be taken to the College Nurse. If the accident requires a visit to the hospital or a doctor's office, the student may file a claim through the college's accident insurance, which is a secondary policy. Completion of Insurance Claims forms and Verification of Other Insurance forms are the student's responsibility! Forms are available in the Nurse's Office and the Business Office.

HEALTH SERVICES NEWS

Regarding accidents on campus, College policy requires that an injured student complete an accident report with 24 hours after an accident that occurs on campus. Accident report forms are available from most instructors, the College Nurse, and the Business Office. After the form is completed, it must be taken or sent to the College Nurse. If the accident requires a visit to the hospital or a doctor's office, the student may file a claim through the college's accident insurance, which is a secondary policy. Completion of Insurance Claim forms and Verification of Other Insurance forms are the student's responsibility!

CONTEMPORARY DANCE COLLECTIVE PERFORMANCES

The Central Sierra Arts Council, in cooperation with Columbia College, is pleased to present two performances by the Contemporary Dance Collective, Saturday, March 31 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, April 1 at 2 p.m. The Collective is a newly formed professional dance company comprised of area dancers, educators, and choreographers. The members of the Collective are Terry Hoff, dance instructor at Columbia College; Lori Bryhni, dance instructor at Modesto Junior College; Shalleen Bosch, director and choreographer for children's productions at the Lakewood Drama Club; and Jana Chiavetta, dance instructor at Dancing Feet. The members collaborate on the creation of a wide range of dances, sharing responsibility for choreographing the original dances for the company. The results are a blend of individual experiences and styles, producing a variety of dances, some humorous, others thoughtful, still others abounding with energy. Tickets for these two exciting and thought-provoking performances are available from the Central Sierra Arts Council and Columbia College. Prices are $6 for general admission and $5 for seniors and students. For further information, contact the CSAC at 532-2787.

SCHOLARSHIP OFFICE

There are still scholarships available to qualified Columbia College students. Many have deadlines that are fast approaching, however. Stop by the Financial Aid/Scholarship office and talk to Joy.

SEARCH FOR MAGAZINES BY COMPUTER

Now you can locate magazine articles on almost any subject instantly with the aid of a computer. The College Library has added InfoTrac's Academic Index, a CD-ROM database searched by computer. Included are nearly 400 magazines, plus the last 6 months of the New York Times. Just enter the subject you want information on, and in seconds you will get a list of recent articles. You can get a printout of all the articles listed, or just the ones of most interest to you. For a demonstration, ask any librarian.
