DON'T RIP OFF THE LIBRARY

What you want can be checked out free, anyway! The College Library's resources are there for all of Columbia College's students to use. When someone steals a book or magazine from the Library, it will not be available to other students to use in the future. New issues of popular magazines are frequent targets, and titles such as Rolling Stone, National Geographic, and Sports Illustrated will have to be canceled if they are continually missing. Have some consideration and respect for your fellow students -- use Library resources responsibly.
