The Academic Resource Center needs YOU!

Help others and make money on campus! Do you find yourself helping classmates understand coursework? Have you wondered if teaching is the career for you? If you have a good GPA and have enrolled in 6 or more units this semester, you qualify to be a Peer Tutor. Come to an information meeting on Wednesday, August 16 or Monday, August 21 from 3-3:45pm in the Academic Resource Center in Redbud 9 or call and talk to Tia @ 588-5279 if you can't make it.

~~~~~

ARC Writing Center—Redbud 9

The Writing Center in Redbud 9 opens for business on Monday, August 21. Students can get assistance for writing assignments in all college courses. Ask questions about grammar, MLA documentation, or punctuation. Get feedback about the cohesiveness and clarity of an essay or the effectiveness of your description, your thesis statement or your use of examples. ARC hours are as follows:

|                               |                    |
|-------------------------------|--------------------|

The Columbia College Student Senate presents
THE HOLIDAY GIFT TREE

The Holiday Gift Tree Project is an opportunity for those with financial burdens to request a special gift for their children. Parents can pick up gift requests at the Student Senate office (Manzanita 14A). Gift requests must be turned in to the Senate office no later than Friday, December 1, 2000. Parents will be issued a special number to be used when picking up the gift. The same number will be attached to the gift tag to be placed on the tree. The same gift tag should be attached to the gift when returned to the Student Senate office. Students, staff, and faculty who wish to help make a child's Christmas a little brighter can pick a card from the tree, purchase, wrap, and return the gift (with the number attached) to the Student Senate office by Thursday, December 8, 2000. Gifts can be retrieved finals week (12/11 thru 12/14). We are asking that the gift requests be reasonable in nature. For more information: 588-5270 (senate office)

A special thanks to all who help make

FOOD FOR FINES...

To help support the Student Government's canned food drive, the Library will accept a can of food to pay off $1.00 in fines. Offer is good toward new fines that occur between now and December 15th, or older fines that haven't been paid. Now is the time to clear up your overdue fines--and possibly remove a block on your College records--and help put food on the table of local families in need. Do a good deed and not pay your fines: what a deal! Bring your canned food to the Library's Circulation Desk for credit against overdue fines.
