All Columbia college Students are Welcome!! Bring a friend!

GORGEOUS, WONDERFUL NEW LIBRARY OPEN !!

The NEW Columbia College Library is open for all services with the start of the Fall 2003 semester. Well, not everything is where it may eventually wind up, and the new furniture is still in transit, so there aren't as many student stations as there will be in a few weeks. Still, students and the community are welcome to tour the new library, get to know where things are (at least for the moment), enjoy ALL the videos out on the open shelves, find ALL books together in one main collection, and gaze out on the drop-dead, gorgeous views of the lake with the colors changing with the time of day and the weather. This is YOUR new College Library. Enjoy it! If you have questions, the Library staff is here to help!

$$$ FINANCIAL AID $$$ THE FINANCIAL AID OFFICE MAY BE ABLE TO HELP YOU PAY YOUR FEES!!!!

If your income was low in 2002 or you are on AFDC/TANF/CalWorks or SSI, then stop by the Financial Aid Office for the PINK BOGW APPLICATION. If qualified, the $18 per unit and the $12 health fees will be waived from your tuition.

A refund may be given if qualified and tuition has already been paid.

END YOUR SEMESTER WITH SOME FUN!

THE END IS HERE!

All Library materials are due THIS WEEK. Books, magazines and videos are due Monday, Dec. 15th. If you need an extension until later in the week, ask at the Library Circulation Desk, or call the Library at 588-5119. Students registered for Spring semester can borrow items over the Winter Break. The Library will be closed for the break from Dec. 20th through Jan. 11th, reopening the first day of the Spring semester, January 12, 2004.

The (AAC) Academic

Achievement Center can assist you in improving your critical thinking skills by helping you make connections in your own mind and deepening your understanding of your course material. This tutoring service is available free of charge in most subject areas taught at Columbia College. Tutors work individually with students on coursework for most courses offered including reading and writing assignments. Tutoring is available four days a week. Call or visit to make an appointment: 588-5088 -- Redbud 9.

Welcome All Students to Spring Semester 2004

We are pleased to have all new and returning students at Columbia College Campus for Spring, 2004.

During the first few weeks of the semester, there is a high volume of vehicles on campus. Here are some parking survival tips:

- Carpool
- Use public transportation
- Allow extra time for parking
- If you are unable to find a place to park, contact Campus Security at the Tollbooth for assistance. A security officer will guide you to a safe place to park your vehicle.

Make your college experience positive with a few important safety reminders:

- Lock your vehicle; secure your parking permit.
- Do not leave personal belongings (backpacks, purses, books, cellular phones, etc) unattended.
- Park only in a marked parking space unless directed by Campus Security
- Emergency call boxes are located on the first level of student parking and at the Oak Pavilion parking area.
- Campus security is available 24/7 and can be reached by calling 588-5167.

100 Things Every Adult College Student Ought to Know

by Carlette Jackson Hardin is a guide that helps the adult learner adjust to college. If you are re-entering the educational environment, you may be concerned about your ability to be successful in college. Each week success tips taken from this book will be shared with you.

Here's a quote from Michael, aged 42 who is majoring in English:
"College is not just for the creative or the really smart people. It is for ordinary folks who want to improve their lives."

"1. Adult College Students Ought to Know: that it's never too late to follow a dream. If you have always dreamed of going to college or returning to college, it's time to start. In fact, in 1995 there were 6.1 million adult students who were following their dreams by being in college. It is estimated that by year 2007 the number will have increased to 6.4 million. Go for it! You won't be alone."

100 Things Every Adult College Student Ought to Know

by Carlette Jackson Hardin is a guide that helps the adult learner adjust to college.

"#3...that it won't help to dwell on what you should have learned 10-20 years ago. You can't turn back the clock, but you can make up for lost time. Don't dwell on the past. Determine that starting today you are going to absorb as much knowledge as you can."

by Carlette Jackson Hardin is a guide that helps the adult learner adjust to college.

"*4...that past academic records can be erased. Many adults returning to college may have started as traditional students. However, some may have dropped out due to financial obligations, competing responsibilities, or lack of focus, motivation, and maturity. 'I dreaded revealing my grades from my last institution,' stated one student. 'Then I realized many colleges offer programs to clear up past performances and start fresh.' While different terms are used by different institutions, most offer opportunities to make up or erase past academic difficulties. With a clear attitude, a clean slate can get you re-started on the right path."

To all Scholarship Applicants

Thanks to all 149 of you who submitted scholarship applications for the 2003-2004 Scholarship Award year! As always, both the Scholarship Committee and community donors had a difficult time selecting as all applicants were outstanding! We'd like to congratulate the recipients and encourage those of you who were not successful this year to apply again in the Fall 2004. We are always receiving new scholarships and look forward to the program's continued growth. Next year could be your year, so be sure to apply!

Come Join the Scholarship celebration on

by Carlette Jackson Hardin is a guide that helps the adult learner to adjust to college.

"7....that you are more well-rounded and at ease with people than traditional age students. Being older, you have had more experiences in life, and these experiences will serve you well as you pursue your degree. You've met more people and been to more places. You will be able to interact more easily with others (even professors). As you go further in your academic career, your life experiences will serve you well."
